Senator James Inhofe
1924 S Utica Suite 530

Dear Senator Inhofe,

I need your help, someone told me I should give this information to a Senator and it would reach its destination sooner and get processed faster than if I relied on the conventional method. We ran Track against each other back in the Prehistoric days you from Central and me From Rogers and I went by the name of Sonny Henderson. I remember my duals with Burch Oglasby and I think I ran against you a couple times and you were not kind to me, you beat my Butt. I am sure we have a lot of mutual friends.

In 1977, I went to the Sales Manager of Boecking Machinery and told him I was no longer a participant in the County Commissioner kick-back scheme. It was illegal and I no longer wanted to be a part of it. I told them a lot of people were going to get in trouble, and they were going to lose their Dealership, both predictions came true. Even though William S. Price, then United States Attorney for U. S. Department of Justice in the Western District of Oklahoma testified on my behalf, I was indicted under 18 U. S C. on one count of conspiracy alleging involvement in a kickback scheme with a County Commissioner, I was convicted and punished for conduct that was not criminal. I am truly ashamed and sorry that I ever got involved in the County Commissioner scandal. Unfortunately I did not go to Boecking when it was required of my job and tell them it was wrong, and I was not going to participate.

Since leaving Boecking in 1980, I have been a good citizen and ran a successful business in the Used Equipment business and building Water-Wagons, I have suffered three strokes seven years ago. I cannot talk or get around too good and I know my days are numbered. Before I die, I would like to receive a pardon and leave this old world like I came in EVEN STEVEN.

Sincerely,

Arch Henderson Jr.

Dear Senator Inhofe:

This responds to your letter of March 20, 2002, forwarding the request for an application for presidential pardon from your constituent, Mr. Arch E. Henderson, Jr.

We are enclosing a pardon application. The form may be photocopied, and it should be carefully and fully completed in accordance with the "Rules Governing Petitions for Executive Clemency" and the "Information and Instructions on Pardons," copies of which are included with the application form. The form, rules, and instructions are also available on our website at www.usdoj.gov/pardon.

For Mr. Henderson's information, only federal convictions are subject to presidential pardon, and a minimum waiting period of five years after conviction or release from confinement, whichever is longer, is required before a pardon application may be accepted. He should see Section 1.2 of the "Rules" and paragraphs two and three of the "Information and Instructions." Mr. Henderson should return the completed form to this office for processing and need not send a duplicate copy for filing.

Thank you for your interest in executive clemency matters.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adams

Dear Senator Inhofe:

This is in reply to the correspondence from your Oklahoma City office, received by facsimile on July 22, 2005, inquiring on behalf of your constituent, Mr. James M. Wilkett, about the status of his application for presidential pardon.

Mr. Wilkett's pardon petition is currently under consideration. Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adams
